

ABOUT

The Regional Academy on the United Nations (RAUN) is an international multi-disciplinary program which trains students and young scholars in issues related to the United Nations and international cooperation. RAUN has trained over 140 young scholars from more than 20 nationalities.

AIM

RAUN's aim is to provide participants with broad knowledge and resources about the UN entities and their functions, to raise their cultural awareness and openness, and to offer a forum for exploring new approaches and academic exchange.

APPROACH

The academy follows a unique format combining special lectures and workshops with practical hands-on research experiences. The program consists of three sessions per academic year starting in April/May until January. The sessions take place in different participating countries and include lectures and interactive workshops on various topics relevant to the United Nations. All courses are given by high-ranking experts and practitioners who also share their rich experience with participants in an informal setting.

ACADEMIC ACCREDITATION

RAUN is accredited by the PhD program of Social Science at the University of Vienna (10 ECTS credits), the Faculty of Social and Economic Sciences of Comenius University in Slovakia (6 ECTS credits), and the Faculty of International Relations of the University of Economics in Prague (3 ECTS credits).
